

6516205741.txt

I pay for these services and XM Radio has the right to provide me with the services that it's customers want. The reason I pay for this service is because of the programming they provide. The NAB is not paying my bills. I have the right to get what I pay for without restrictions.